

Bangor Group Theosophical Society

Syllabus September 2026 to January 2027

September

Tuesday 8th 7.30 pm - Chaos - The Womb of Creation - Has it always been chaos or did we cause it? This study will take us from the origins of life on earth through the ages to now, to help unravel the meaning of the apparent disorder of our present world. A talk by Kate Fletcher

Wednesday 16th 2.00 pm - Daskalos - A talk by David Harvey. Daskalos was an intriguing Cypriot healer whose out-of-body experiences, tales of healing and love, and accounts of occasionally lurid past-life experiences, are fascinating.

Saturday 19th 10.30 am - 4.30 pm An experimental Seminar given by David Harvey on the Mahatma Letters. Details will be sent out to enquirers.

October

Tuesday 13th 7.30 pm - Deus Ex Machina - The Spirit In The Machine - a talk by Dafydd Monks. In a world where intelligence has become commoditised, what are the implications of "thinking" machines, divine intelligence and the inner worlds?

Wednesday 21st 2.00 pm - From Darkness To Light (re-visited) - If we are to move from the darkness of ignorance to the light of full consciousness we need to understand the relationship of Darkness and Light in esoteric terms, and what it means for us. Here Kate explores both the personal and the wider vision (developed from the talk given in March).

November

Tuesday 10th at 7.30 pm Kate leads a study of Fohat and Mahat - the great forces behind life and form.

Wednesday 18th at 2.00 pm - Loving The Unlovable: How We Can Externalise Our Inner Light - a talk by Gillian Monks - Inspirational preparation as we approach Midwinter, the rebirth of the Sun and the celebration of the birth of Christ

December

Tuesday 8th at 12.30 - our Christmas Social Lunch - probably at the Four Crosses, To be confirmed.

January 2027

Wednesday 13th 2.00 pm - AGM

Wednesday 20th 2.00 pm - Jesus - The Christ? A post-Christmas talk by Kate on our esoteric understanding of the fundamental link between Jesus of Nazareth and The Christ
